Rebecca Wilson Awarded IFDA "Rising Star" Award

Rebecca Wilson, owner of RW Interiors, a leading interior design firm based in Needham, Massachusetts, is the most recent recipient of the International Furnishings and Design Association's "Rising Star" Award.

"Rebecca was an obvious choice for the award this year," said Sue Adams, President of the IFDA. "Through her enthusiasm, and dedication to the IFDA, Rebecca exemplifies the qualities of a talented 'rising star'."

The "Rising Star" Award is presented to a member of the IFDA who has enthusiastically taken on responsibility for IFDA projects and shows great promise for the future in interior design.

In 2009, Rebecca won the IFDA New England Designer Showcase Recognition Award for bedroom design. In addition to being an active member of the International Furnishings and Design Association (IFDA), she is also an allied member of the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID).

RW Interiors provides a full range of design services, specializing in residences and small offices. Known for her warm and gracious interiors, Rebecca brings her southern design sensibility to a wide range of projects in the greater Boston area and beyond.
